

The Third Annual Asian Family Engagement Virtual Conference “Journey to Success”

Event Date: Friday, December 18, 2020

Event Time: 9 am – 2:30 pm

Location: Online (Virtual event)

Cost: Free

Registration is required: <https://asianfamily.eventxtra.com/landing>

Who should attend:

This virtual conference is designed for middle school, high school, community college students and their parents. Two tracks will be offered: one for parents and one for students. Anyone who would like to learn about higher education, leadership, civic engagement, arts and culture, and careers should attend

About The Conference:

This yearly conference is the collaborative effort of Fresno State, Fresno Unified and Parent University, and the Fresno Center. The conference engages students and parents through virtual workshops and speakers chosen to empower them with valuable information in a broad range of topics. This year, attendees will benefit from hearing about the journeys of two fascinating keynote speakers. Two tracks will be offered to students and parents where they can choose from various workshops that appeal to their interest. Parent workshops will also be conducted in various languages. Information that is being disseminated during the conference will enhance the life of the attendees and help them make well-informed decisions for their future.

Guests will also benefit from a virtual resource fair where they can connect with various academic and community organizations. Attendees have the ability to chat with exhibitors, ask questions to presenters, and network with their peers.

For attending, guests also have an opportunity to win various prizes from gift cards to laptop computers.

Areas of Interest:

Individuals who attend this year's conference will be empowered in the following areas:

- The Asian American story
 - Institutions of higher education and how to fund college
 - Career exploration and how to prepare for the workforce
 - Emotional and social support during a pandemic like COVID-19
 - The benefits of getting involved as a student
 - Leading as an Asian American
 - Taping into your learning style and setting yourself up for success
 - What to do once you have applied to Fresno State
 - Getting involved in your child's education
